About nine o'clock that evening the Sheriff, with four assistants, proceeded to Pin kett's house. One of the party told us that there was no light in the dwelling; that two of them guarded the front door, while the Sheriff and the rest of the braves went around to the rear of the house, knocked, entered, called for a light, but were told by Mrs. P. that she had no candle. She protested, over and over, that Mr. Pinkett was not at home. The Sheriff happened to have some matches in his pocket, and he soon struck up light enoughto guide him to the bed-room door. He entered, looked in and under the bod .- no Sam was there. He pushed the door back, when lo! it would not go clear back without reducing to pulp and pumice the body of Pinkett! Finance-There is great activity reported on the part of the canvassing corps, and they are succeeding tolerably well. But there seems to be too much slowness and reluctance on the part of many of our citizens. They should all give the canvassers for the requisite funds, all the help they cap. The committee do not want barren sympathy and co operation-that kind which goes no farther than talk; they want a resonable chare of your available money. We hope all will deal liberally in with and abundantly.

There being no turther business before the meeting, it adjourned to meet at the Mayor's office at half-past seven o'clock als evening. It is sincerely hoped that all the sub-committees will be present. We are already far behind our neighbors in preparations for the celebration, and whatever arrangements we propose to make must be made quickly.

THE WESTERN RESERVE ECLECTIC INSTITCTS The friends of the Eclectic Institute wil e pleased to learn that the meeting, which was held on Tuesday last, was attended by the very best of feeling and will, with their cordial co-operation, result in placing the Eclectic on a still higher and more substantial basis than heretofore. The meeting was attended by a large and highly influential representation from different parts of the State, each of whom felt the necessity and great importance of obtaining an endowment fund for the establishment of at least two choirs of Theology in connection with the Literary Department of the Eclectic .-To this end ten thousand dollars were pledged during the meeting, and it is confidently hoped that from thirty to fifty in quite jovial mood, and, like Mrs. Jeff. thousand may be raised within a few thousand may be raised within a few thousand time to dress. The Sheriff as their agent for receiving the endowment fund, Mr. W. J. Ford, whose success hither to, in similar labor, gives assurance of the speedy realization of the proposed scheme. All that is needed is the cordial co-opera-sion of the friends of the Eslectic. In addition to this, the Board of Trustee have taken steps to inaugurate the ensuing Academic year, with new vigor and increased facilities. The indications already promise a very large attendance during the Fall Term which will open on the 6th of August. Some changes will be made in the Board of Teachers, which, it is believed, will reassure the public and all the old patrons of the Eclectic, that it is to enter upon a new life of useful and honorable labors.

No RETURNS AND PALSE BRANDS .- Commis tioner White was engaged yesterday with the adjourned examination of Bernard Esch, a whisky manufacturer, of Delphos, O., who is charged with detrauding the government of revenue in the sale of whisky without paying duty thereon, and also for outting on casks felse inspection brands. Seizures have been made in this District, of 465 berrels of his whisky, and 400 barrels in New York. There are about a score of witnesses in the case. It was not conclude up to five o'clock yesterday, but will probably be disposed of to-day.

ACADERY OF MUSIC.-A good house was out to the theatre last night, and were nighly pleased with the beautiful play, 'The Dream at Bea," and convulsed with the after piece, "Servants by Legacy." The domestic comedy of "Salf" will be resented again this evening, and for the last time this season. It is such an extragood thing, we hope a good crowd of people will avail themselves of this last chance of seeing a truly superior play.

MEADVILLE, June 22, 1865. Distriguismen Visitos.—General Burnside paid this place a visit yesterday, and put up at the McHenry House, where he was called on by many citizens to nay their respects. In the evening he was seronaded by the band of the 150th Regiment, which arrived here Tuesday from Washington. The General thanked them in a brief speech, of peace to the country. MEAN THIEF .- A night or two after the do nation party given to Rev. Mr. Day, a thief entered his cellar and stole some butter and eggs left at the house by generous donors. What punishment should be meted out to a thief so mean as to steal from a preacher I cannot conceive, but would favor something extremely severe. In this world, it is said, a Methodist minister hasn't any right to possess more than a pretty wife and a good horse. The thief must have understood this when he took the butter and eggs, and for his considerate generosity in leaving the good wife and horse (if he has one), Mr Day has "much to be thansful for."

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.-The varius sub-committees met in the Mayor's ment in this City, and the Man is Arrested and Lodged in the Elyria

We have refrained, several days, from publishing an aggravated elopement case, the scene of which was laid in Elyria and this city, -because the police here had plans and purposes in view which would have been frustrated by giving the affair publicity. The facts in the case are briefly these : Ou Tuesday night, the 13th inst., Richard Hodshon, of Elyria, drove a daughter of Thomas Collier, of that village, a girl about sixteen or seventeen years old, to Rocky River, where they were to be met by Samuel Pinkett, a butcher, and a long-time resident of that place. The driver took the this matter and help the committee forthwrong road, and as a consequence the parties did not meet at the appointed rendezvous The couple pushed on to this city, and
